

THE - DAILY - HERALD.

"FIRST OF ALL, THE NEWS."

ISSUED EVERY DAY EXCEPT SUNDAY.

JESSE O. WHEELER, Editor and Prop

Entered at the Postoffice, Brownsville, Texas, as second-class matter.

SATURDAY August 6, 1892.

"RAH of Cleve and Steve!"

It is said that Gladstone has had his picture taken in a polka dot shirt.

That column of short editorials in yesterday's Laredo Times looms up immensely.

"I am a democrat!" Take up the warcry and fall into line for Cleveland and Stevenson.

Texas has many good democrats to serve as governor, but Texas has but one Mills to serve in the senate.

ALICE MITCHELL, the murderess, has been adjudged insane and ordered to be placed in an insane asylum.

SAN ANTONIO'S fire-bug, Joe McDonald, will have to be a regular lightning bug to escape the penalty of his crimes.

IN UNION there is strength. Let us all pull together for waterworks. But let us have a system of water-works worthy of a town of the size and wealth of Brownsville.

The weather clerk is respectfully reminded that there may be such a thing as a superfluity of humidity.—Houston Post.

And the clerk displays a superfluity of stupidity in not sending the rain where it is needed.

THE citizens of Winston, N. C. have requested Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson to speak in that city, promising him the largest audience ever witnessed in the "Old North State." As North Carolina is considered by some as a little doubtful, the chances are that he will comply.

THERE is something about New York's new method of executing murderers that is exceedingly revolting. It may be due to the fact that all of the sickening details are so faithfully reported, or it may be because people are as yet not educated up to appreciating its humaneness.

Mrs. JULIA TRUITT BISHOP has severed her connection with the Austin Statesman and will establish a weekly paper in Austin. It will be called the Texas Home Corner and will be issued, every Sunday morning. Mr. Bishop's reputation as a journalist is too well known to require comment. That her paper will be a success there is no doubt.

L. A. SHERMAN in Newspaperdom says: "I am quite certain that no newspaper gains subscribers or advertising patronage by seeking to disparage a contemporary either through attacks upon its editors or publishers personally, upon the paper itself." The truth of this is self evident but when a paper is attacked by another and covertly accused of falsifying facts, for merely expressing a different view of a question, it is difficult to refrain from making some reply.

FOR THE benefit of some who are laboring under a mistaken idea, we wish to state that THE HERALD is strictly a business institution. It is run for the purpose of publishing the news, and building up the trade interests of Brownsville and Cameron county, by advertising our resources. THE HERALD is not published in the interest of any faction, or for the purpose of gaining votes for any ring. It is our endeavor to give to our citizens a clean newsy paper, which is honest and above board in all its dealings. THE HERALD belongs strictly to its proprietor and cannot be bought or controlled for political or electioneering schemes. We believe that our idea of what a newspaper should be will meet the approval of the citizens of Brownsville, and that they will prove it by giving us their support.

The good people of Houston should not let a few disgruntled and mashed tail politicians bring everlasting disgrace upon the fair name of that patriotic and liberal city.—New Braunfels Herald.

We do not see how the action of said politicians could affect Houston's fair name. Even should the convention nominate Hogg the stigma will rest not upon the Bayou city.

SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS: When Judge Clark went to St. Louis to stand by the bedside of a child that was supposed to be dying, it was perfectly natural for the Hogg organs to say that he had fled. It would have been a surprise if they had not. That is the way the Hogg fellows conduct a campaign.

WASHINGTON press dispatchs say that it is possible the senate and the house may disagree upon the date of adjournment, and, in accordance with the constitution, the duty of adjourning congress will devolve upon the president.

FILIBUSTERING representatives opposing the world's fair appropriation say they will remain in Washington until the crack of doom, if necessary, to defeat the bill. This may prove to be a billion dollar congress after all.

Dates for Teachers' Examinations.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, }
AUSTIN, TEXAS, May 18, '92. }

The regular Teachers' Examinations will be held on the third Friday and the following Saturday in February, April, June, August, September, and November.

Special examinations may be held on the third Friday and the following Saturday of any other month, except July, provided notice is given the State Superintendent at least two weeks before the day the said examination is to begin.

No questions for these special examinations will be sent to any county, except at the request of the county superintendent or county judge.

Most respectfully,
J. M. CARLISLE.

State Superintendent Public Instruction.

A Marvel in Book Publishing.

A curious book, in which the text is neither written nor printed, but woven, has lately been published in Lyons. It is made of silk, and was published in twenty-five parts. Each part consists of two leaves, so that the entire volume contains only fifty leaves, inscribed with the service of the mass and several prayers. Both the letters and the border are in black silk on a white background.—Boston Globe.

Journey of a Balloon.

A Harrisburg boy sent up in a balloon on the Fourth of July last year a bottle with his name and address in it, requesting the finder to return it to him. About ten days ago the bottle was picked up by a gentleman on the shore of Lake Superior, near Duluth, who immediately forwarded it to the lad.

Every year sees diminution in the importance of the walled city as a military obstacle. Nuremberg is to lose her walls so that the modern idea of defense by separate fortresses can be carried out.

A bill is to be introduced into the next session of the Pennsylvania legislature for the creation of forest reservations at the headwaters of principal rivers.

There seems to be something in a name in the case of the twenty-two-year-old mayor of Alliance, O. His name is Excell.
